Important Information Regarding Blood Tests

Concept Fertility Centre uses Australian Clinical Labs (previously St John of God Pathology) collection centres for collection of blood samples for hormone testing and screening. The collection centres available for use are listed below. To ensure your blood sample reaches Concept Fertility Centre in time for testing on the day of collection please arrive at one of the listed collection centers before 9am, or by 11am at Concept Fertility Centre. It is also possible to use WA School of Pathology collection centre in Wangara.
